

TENANCY TRIBUNAL - Christchurch | Ōtautahi

APPLICANT: Syamdev Vasudevan
Tenant

RESPONDENT: Ernest Kilian
Landlord

TENANCY ADDRESS: 25 Morrison Avenue, Northcote, Christchurch 8052

ORDER

1. No application for suppression has been made in this case and no suppression orders apply around publication of this decision.
2. Ernest Kilian must pay Syamdev Vasudevan $20.44 immediately, being the filing fee on this application.
3. The Bond Centre is to pay the bond of $1,400.00 (3149565-013) to Syamdev Vasudevan immediately.

Reasons:

1. The tenant attended the hearing. The landlord did not attend.
2. The tenant has applied for refund of the bond. The landlord has not filed a counterclaim with Tenancy Services.
3. Section 22B(2) Residential Tenancies Act 1986 provides that, where a tenant applies for refund of the bond, and the landlord seeks payment from the bond, the landlord must file an application setting out the details of the counterclaim.

4. Because the landlord has not filed a counterclaim the bond is refunded in full to the tenant.
5. As the tenant was the successful party, I have also awarded reimbursement of the filing fee.

Visit justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals for more information on rehearings and appeals.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.

A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.

You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $200. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order for the payment of less than $1000
- a final order to undertake work worth less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.

If you require further help or information regarding this matter, visit tenancy.govt.nz/disputes/enforcing-decisions or phone Tenancy Services on 0800 836 262.
