

TENANCY TRIBUNAL - [Event location suppressed]

APPLICANT: [The applicant/s]
Landlord

RESPONDENT: Xavier Maru-Blake
Tenant

TENANCY ADDRESS: [Tenancy address suppressed]

ORDER

1. An application for suppression has been made in this case, and the Tribunal orders suppression of the Landlord name and identifying details.
2. Xavier Maru-Blake must pay [The landlord/s] $90.03 immediately, calculated as shown in table below.
3. The Bond Centre is to pay the bond of $880.00 ([Bond number suppressed]) to [The landlord/s] immediately.

Description	Landlord	Tenant
Window repairs	$324.59
Cleaning	$250.00
Carpet Cleaning: Rug Doctor hire	$50.00
Rubbish removal	$196.00
Lock/key replacement	$109.00
Recycle bin replacement	$20.00
Filing fee reimbursement	$20.44
Total award	$970.03
Bond	$880.00
Total payable by Tenant to Landlord	$90.03

Reasons:

1. The landlord attended this remote teleconference hearing.
2. Telephone calls were made to the tenant on the number provided at the allocated hearing time. All calls went to voicemail. The Tribunal may hear matters in the absence of a party where satisfied that notice of the hearing has been given.
3. The landlord has applied for compensation, refund of the bond, and reimbursement of the filing fee following the end of the tenancy.

Did the tenant comply with their obligations at the end of the tenancy?

4. At the end of the tenancy the tenant must leave the premises reasonably clean and tidy, remove all rubbish, return all keys and security devices, and leave all chattels provided for their benefit. See section 40(1)(e)(ii)-(v) Residential Tenancies Act 1986.
5. The tenant did not leave the premises reasonably clean and tidy, and did not remove all rubbish. The landlord provided an invoice in support of the claim. The landlord said that dog excrement was on the deck and that the bathroom and kitchen were left particularly dirty. The actual cost of cleaning to the landlord was $500.00. The landlord has only claimed $250.00 which was the cleaning required to bring the premises to a reasonably clean and tidy standard.
6. The landlord hired a rug doctor to clean the carpets at a cost of $50.00. The rug doctor was used to remove pet stains and odour.
7. The tenant did not return the keys. An invoice was provided for the lock change of $109.00.
8. The tenant left rubbish behind both inside and outside. An invoice for rubbish removal and recycling centre costs of $196.00 was provided
9. The council recycling bin was missing at the end of the tenancy. The replacement cost was $20.00.
10. The amounts ordered are proved.

Is the tenant responsible for the damage to the premises?

11. A landlord must prove that damage to the premises occurred during the tenancy and is more than fair wear and tear. If this is established, to avoid liability, the tenant must prove they did not carelessly or intentionally cause or permit the damage. Tenants are liable for the actions of people at the premises with their permission. See sections 40(2)(a), 41 and 49B RTA.

12. Where the damage is careless, and occurs after 27 August 2019, section 49B RTA applies. If the landlord becomes aware of the damage after 27 August, the damage is presumed to have occurred after that date unless the tenant proves otherwise.
13. Where the damage is caused carelessly, and is covered by the landlord's insurance, the tenant's liability is limited to the lesser of the insurance excess or four weeks' rent (or four weeks' market rent in the case of a tenant paying income-related rent). See section 49B(3)(a) RTA. The landlord is insured. The insurance excess on each claim is $2,150.00.
14. Where the damage is careless and is not covered by the landlord's insurance, the tenant's liability is limited to four weeks' rent (or market rent). See section 49B(3)(b) RTA. Where insurance money is irrecoverable because of the tenant's conduct, the property is treated as if it is not insured against the damage. See section 49B(3A)(a) RTA.
15. Tenants are liable for the cost of repairing damage that is intentional or which results from any activity at the premises that is an imprisonable offence. This applies to anything the tenant does and anything done by a person they are responsible for. See section 49B(1) RTA.
16. Damage is intentional where a person intends to cause damage and takes the necessary steps to achieve that purpose. Damage is also intentional where a person does something, or allows a situation to continue, knowing that damage is a certainty. See Guo v Korck [2019] NZHC 1541.
17. A window was broken during the tenancy. The landlord said that the tenant admitted breaking the window whilst moving out and that the tenant had said to deduct the cost from his bond. The damage is more than fair wear and tear, and the tenant has not disproved liability for the damage. The repair invoice is for $324.59.
18. The amounts ordered are proved.
19. As [The landlord/s] has wholly succeeded with the claim I must order the tenant to reimburse the filing fee.
20. The landlord has applied for name suppression. The landlord has been wholly successful in this matter and suppression of the landlord details is ordered.

Visit justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals for more information on rehearings and appeals.

Rehearings

You can apply for a rehearing if you believe that a substantial wrong or miscarriage of justice has happened. For example:

- you did not get the letter telling you the date of the hearing, or
- the adjudicator improperly admitted or rejected evidence, or
- new evidence, relating to the original application, has become available.

You must give reasons and evidence to support your application for a rehearing.

A rehearing will not be granted just because you disagree with the decision.

You must apply within five working days of the decision using the Application for Rehearing form: justice.govt.nz/assets/Documents/Forms/TT-Application-for-rehearing.pdf

Right of Appeal

Both the landlord and the tenant can file an appeal. You should file your appeal at the District Court where the original hearing took place. The cost for an appeal is $200. You must apply within 10 working days after the decision is issued using this Appeal to the District Court form: justice.govt.nz/tribunals/tenancy/rehearings-appeals

Grounds for an appeal

You can appeal if you think the decision was wrong, but not because you don't like the decision. For some cases, there'll be no right to appeal. For example, you can't appeal:

- against an interim order
- a final order for the payment of less than $1000
- a final order to undertake work worth less than $1000.

Enforcement

Where the Tribunal made an order about money or property this is called a civil debt. The Ministry of Justice Collections Team can assist with enforcing civil debt. You can contact the collections team on 0800 233 222 or go to justice.govt.nz/fines/civil-debt for forms and information.

Notice to a party ordered to pay money or vacate premises, etc.

Failure to comply with any order may result in substantial additional costs for enforcement. It may also involve being ordered to appear in the District Court for an examination of your means or seizure of your property.
